

Innovation in Fertility Care and Research

Invitation

For at markere åbningen af Fertiliterklinikken på
Gynækologisk /Obstetrisk Afdeling, Sjællands
Universitetshospital og det internationale forskningskonsortium ReproHealth, vil vi gerne invitere
dig til åbningssymposium:

"Innovation in Fertility Care and Research: Challenges and Opportunities"

Onsdag d. 24. april 2019
kl. 10.00-16.00

Auditoriet
Sjællands Universitetshospital, Køge
Lykkebækvej 1
4600 Køge

Dette endagssymposium vil udforske, hvordan nye samarbejdsrelationer mellem politikere, forskere og industrien kan føre til innovation inden for reproduktiv forskning og behandling. Foredragsholderne vil dele deres synspunkter om emnet.

Under frokostpausen vil der være mulighed for besøg på Sjællands Universitetshospitals nyindrettede fertilitetsklinik samt møde nogle af vores unge forskere, som vil præsentere posters med deres forskningsprojekter.

Med venlig hilsen,

Nick Macklon, Thomas Hviid, Kathrine Birch Petersen og Lars Mikael Alling Møller

Tilmelding til lbde@regionsjaelland.dk senest 12. april af hensyn til forplejning.

To mark the opening of the Fertility Clinic at the Dept. of Gynaecology and Obstetrics, Zealand University Hospital and the International Research Consortium ReproHealth, we would like to invite you to the opening symposium:

Wednesday April 24th 2019
at 10.00-16.00

Auditoriet
Zealand University Hospital, Køge
Lykkebækvej 1
4600 Køge

This one day symposium will explore how new partnerships between policy makers, clinical scientists and the industry can lead to innovations in reproductive care and research. Speakers from all these branches will share their view on the topic.

There will be an opportunity to visit the new Zealand University Hospital Fertility Clinic and meet some of our young researchers as they present their posters during lunch break.

Kind regards,

Registration must be made no later than April 12th to lbde@regionsjaelland.dk in consideration of catering.

Program

Innovation in Fertility Care and Research: Challenges and Opportunities

Dato: 24. april 2019 kl. 10.00-16.00

Det store auditorium, Sjællands Universitetshospital, Køge

Program

9.30-10.00: Kaffe

Session 1:

Innovation i den danske sundhedssektor

10.00-10.10: Velkommen: En ny Fertilitetsklinik og eliteforskningskonsortium
Sygehusledelsen, Sjællands Universitetshospital

10.10-10.30: Innovation i Sundhedsvæsenet – set fra Regionshuset.
Regionsrådsformand i Region Sjælland: Heino Knudsen

10.30-11.00: The ReproHealth Research Consortium (Dansk/Engelsk)
Professor N. Macklon (DK) and Professor T. Hviid (DK)

11.00-11.30: Implantation; the ultimate collaboration (Dansk)
Consultant, DMSci, H. Svarre Nielsen (DK)

11.30-12.30: Posterpræsentationer ved ph.d.-studerende, og frokost

Session 2:

Innovating in Research (English)

12.30-13.00: Over-the-counter mild analgesics and fertility – should we be concerned?
Senior scientist, PhD David M. Kristensen (DK)

13.00-13.30: Introducing innovation: from in-vitro to in-vivo
Dr. P. Svalander (UK)

13.30-14.00: The Microbiome and IVF: Science and Serendipity
Professor J. Laven (NL)

14.00-14.30: How will IVF be done when Louise Brown is 50?
Professor P. Humaidan (DK)

14.30-15.00: Discussion
Chairs: Professor N. Macklon (DK) and K. Birch Petersen (DK)

15.00-16.00: Reception på Fertilitetsklinikken, Lykkebækvej 14